As the most established and recognised authority in parking, we actively represents you and promotes the sector by advancing knowledge, raising standards and professionalism. We do this through collaboration, with you – our members – government and other key stakeholders.

We look to constantly improve our offering, to give members like you the support you need to succeed. As a not-for-profit organisation our key purpose is to support and encourage excellence in the parking community. The money we make is reinvested into working on your behalf and developing membership benefits for you. Your contribution as members is what makes the work we do possible.
